

"Yours is princely power from the day of your birth. In holy splendor before the daystar ... I begot you." (PS 110:3)

For over 50 days, thousands of young men and women have been protesting in Al Tahrir square against corruption, demanding a free and peaceful country. This year the Christmas tree is decorated with the photos of martyrs who lost their lives since the revelation started in October. The tree is placed in front of Freedom Monument expressing the hopes and dreams (freedom and peace) of our people.

From the womb of Al Tahrir square, Baghdad (Liberation square), we await the birth of King of Peace among his people.

We wish you a very blessed season. Merry Christmas and happy New Year.

Dominican Sisters- Iraq.